PRAYER: Blessed Lord, who has caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant that we might reverently hear them, read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of Your Holy Word we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life which You have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ, through whose name alone we pray. Amen.

THE ORDER OF SERVICE: p. 5 (248:1-3)

HYMNS: 2; 384; 373; 50

THE RESPONSIVE INTROIT: (Psalm 100)

Make a joyful shout to the Lord, all you lands!

²Serve the Lord with gladness;

Come before His presence with singing.

³Know that the Lord, He is God;

It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves;

We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

⁴Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,

And into His courts with praise.

Be thankful to Him, and bless His name.

⁵For the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting,

And His truth endures to all generations.

Glory be to the Father...

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON: Exodus 19:2-8a

God reminds the Children of Israel of His love for them in rescuing them from the Egyptians. Now He would have them enter into a very special relationship with Him so that they might be a special treasure to Him above all people, a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. This is the love that God extends to sinners yet today through the proclamation of the gospel. He would draw us to Himself through the covenant of the gospel that we might be His own special people.

THE GOSPEL LESSON: Matthew 9:35-10:8

Jesus love for sinners is evident in His ministry. Jesus principle activity as He traveled to the cities and villages of the Jews was to teach the truth of the gospel of the kingdom. He had compassion upon the people because they were spiritually weary like wandering sheep who had no shepherd. Jesus sent out the twelve, granting them power over unclean spirits and power to heal, but their principle mission was to preach that the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Hymn 248:1-3 Father of Glory, to Thy Name

Father of glory, to Thy name
Immortal praise we give
Who dost an act of grace proclaim
And bid us rebels live.

Immortal honor to the Son,
Who makes Thine anger cease;
Our lives He ransomed with His own
And died to make our peace

To Thine almighty Spirit be
Immortal glory giv'n,
Whose teachings bring us near to Thee
And train us up for heav'n.
