PRAYER: Oh Lord, who has caused all Holy Scripture to be written for our edification, grant us Your Holy Spirit that He might open our hearts to reverently hear Your Word, and be brought to a fuller knowledge of your glory revealed in our salvation in Jesus Christ. Grant that, having fed our souls upon the Bread of Life, we may be invigorated to live to the glory of our Savior's name. Amen.

THE ORDER OF SERVICE: p. 5 (248:1-3)

HYMNS: 24; 375; 777; 50:2

THE RESPONSIVE INTROIT: (Ps., NKJV)

I will extol You, my God, O King;

And I will bless Your name forever and ever.

²Every day I will bless You,

And I will praise Your name forever and ever.

³Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;

Men shall speak of the might of Your awesome acts,

And I will declare Your greatness.

⁷They shall utter the memory of Your great goodness,

And shall sing of Your righteousness.

I will meditate on the glorious splendor of Your majesty,

And on Your wondrous works..

Glory be to the Father...

THE EPISTLE LESSON: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-16

The Lord knows the needs of His people. Paul speaks here concerning how faithfully the Lord provides for the spiritual needs of His people, providing pastors and teachers and elders all to equip their believers with the gospel that all may be involved in ministering to others. We are all to be active protecting one another from false teaching and the craftiness of the devil that we may grow in Christ and be edified in love.

THE GOSPEL LESSON: John 6:1-15

Jesus knows our needs of body and soul and is able to provide far beyond what we even imagine to be possible. Jesus fed the 500 thousand with but five barley loaves and two small fish and with much left over. So also Jesus is able to provide for our every need of body and soul, of property and honor, for our families, and for the church. Let us trust in

Hymn 248:1-3 Father of Glory, to Thy Name

Father of glory, to Thy name
Immortal praise we give
Who dost an act of grace proclaim
And bid us rebels live.

Immortal honor to the Son,
Who makes Thine anger cease;
Our lives He ransomed with His own
And died to make our peace

To Thine almighty Spirit be
Immortal glory giv'n,
Whose teachings bring us near to Thee
And train us up for heav'n.
